

Alternative Fee Program

Features

Overview

In response to your clients' changing demands, ADR Systems has designed an alternative fee program for qualified commercial matters. At ADR Systems, we settle more than 91% of our mediated cases, and offer the most efficient arbitration process available.

Case Qualifications

- Commercial mediation or arbitration
- Two or more parties
- Claimed amount in dispute approximately $100K or less

Fees

- $900 per party
- No administrative fee

Notable Parameters

- The fee covers up to three hours of the neutral's time
- The three hour time limit includes the neutral's review, session and follow-up, or post session time
- If the neutral's time goes beyond the three hour time limit, the parties will be billed for any additional time at the neutral's standard hourly rate
- Counsel and neutral will agree on a submission page limit
- Sessions are held at ADR Systems' dispute resolution center, a mutually agreed upon off-site location, or via video conference
- Additional facility or travel fees may apply for off-site locations
- With the fast-track option, parties agree to schedule their matter within 30 days, neutrals are selected by agreement or assigned by rotation within five days, and arbitration awards are due seven days after the case closes

ADR Systems of America, LLC.
20 N Clark Street
Floor 29
Chicago IL, 60602

p: 312.960.2260
t: 1.800.423.7010
f: 312.960.2268
info@adrsystems.com

Alternative Fee Program

Benefits

Cost-Effective Program

ADR Systems' alternative fee program offers a lower rate for qualified commercial cases in which potential litigation costs may exceed the amount in dispute.

Experienced Neutrals

Our seasoned neutrals have successfully settled many different types of cases, and are highly skilled at resolving cases quickly through our alternative fee program.

Select neutrals are available for the program. To request an Alternative Fee Program neutral list, please contact ADR Systems.

Efficient Process

Our experienced case managers will administer every aspect of your case to keep it moving forward and ensure the most efficient process possible.

Custom Designed

Our services are tailored to fit the needs of your client and their particular matter. An experienced case manager will help you design a process and select the neutral most suitable for your case.

Administrative Support

ADR Systems will administer all aspects of your case at no cost to you or your client. We contact opposing counsel, schedule your sessions, and work with both parties to ensure a seamless process.