

Flat Fee Mediation Program

Features

Overview

Mediation is now possible for personal injury cases with lower overall values. Under our Flat Fee Mediation Program, these cases can be mediated for an affordable flat fee. The program offers parties with smaller cases a financially viable alternative to mediate disputes.

Case Qualifications

- Personal injury dispute
- Two parties
- See your case manager to qualify your case
- Pre-suit cases are eligible to participate in this program

Fees

- No administrative fee
- $895 flat fee per party

Notable Parameters

- The flat fee covers 2.5 hours of the mediator's time, which includes a half-hour for submission review and two hours of sessions time, and any additional time will be billed at the mediator's standard hourly rate
- Sessions are conducted remotely or in person under health and safety guidelines

Flat Fee Mediation Program

Benefits

Cost-Effective Program

ADR Systems' Flat Fee Mediation Program offers reduced rates on mediation services for lower-value personal injury cases. It is a cost-effective alternative to a traditional half-day or full-day mediation session.

Efficient Process

A case manager will assist parties to ensure that the mediation process is efficient and successful, minimizing the demand on your time. They will also serve as your point of contact throughout the dispute resolution process.

Experienced Mediators

Our well-respected mediators have extensive experience working on personal injury matters. Based on the needs of the case, your case manager will help parties choose a mediator from our select group of personal injury mediators.

Administrative Support

ADR Systems will administer all aspects of your mediation without cost to you. We will contact opposing counsel, schedule your session and ensure all parties are on the same page. We take care of the procedural details so you can solely focus on preparing for your mediation.
