

Neutral Evaluation

Features

Overview

Neutral evaluation is an effective case management tool that can benefit a variety of matters. In this informal process, a well-qualified neutral can provide an objective opinion of your case, clarify complicated issues of fact and law or assist in discovery and motion planning.

Whether you want to prepare your case for early resolution or determine your best strategy for trial or arbitration, neutral evaluation may be right for you and your client.

---

Case Qualifications

- Case may be pre-suit, pre-arbitration, or during litigation or arbitration
- Neutral evaluation may cover a single issue or an entire matter

Fees

- Billed at neutral's hourly rate
- One-time administrative fee

Notable Parameters

- The fee covers the neutral's review time and the oral or written evaluation
- Parties may also request both an oral and written evaluation by the neutral
- Parties may select ADR Systems' fast-track option, meaning the evaluation will generally be completed within 30 days from receipt of submissions
- The neutral evaluation process is flexible and can be tailored to fit specific needs
- Parties may choose up to a panel of three neutrals
- Select neutrals are available for the neutral evaluation program

ADR Systems of America, LLC.
20 N Clark Street
Floor 29
Chicago IL, 60602

p: 312.960.2260
t: 1.800.423.7010
f: 312.960.2268
info@adrsystems.com